

Top Ten Results (Hammer)

Winter Sewing Sale 2017

28 November 2017, Lord Leycester Hospital Warwick, England

253	£3,100.00	A rare large 17th Century or early 18th Century steel shuttle, oval, French (as pictured)
192	£2,700.00	A fine Palais Royal mother of pearl and gilt metal sewing box, circa 1820, the contents complete, of scallop form (as pictured)
155	£2,350.00	A fine Palais Royal scallop form mother of pearl sewing box, dated 1818, the lid with carved scallop
282	£1,520.00	An 18th Century fruitwood short knitting stick carved with a scene of St George slaying the dragon (as pictured)
536	£940.00	An extensive collection of modern bone and other lace bobbins
188	£900.00	A rare etui, attributed to Palais Royal, circa. 1840, in the form of a Roman style helmet in gilded metal and mother of pear
164	£820.00	A fine coromandel wood rectangular sewing box of rectangular form, circa 1850
130	£780.00	An 18th Century dated knitted pin ball, one side depicting a three masted sailing ship, the other initialled and dated 'EW-1799'
210	£760.00	A rare glass egg form finger etui attributed to Palais Royal, circa 1860
148	£720.00	A fine tortoiseshell rectangular sewing box by Lund, circa 1850